Sonoma Has Another Proud Day In Its History Last Sunday

"Bootlegger George" Burned and Still Found In Blazing Shed

NATIVE SONS

MARKED HISTORIC

SONOMA PLACES

Grand Officers and Distinguished Visitors Participate and Are Entertained at Hooker Ranch.

The Native Sons of California for the first time in the history of the Order had the honor on Sunday, June 14th, of officially visiting the richest historical ground in this section of the state and here placing in one afternoon more than a half dozen of markers to commemorate and preserve famous landmarks. Flag Day, anniversary of the 148th anniversary of the American flag, and 79th anniversary of the Bear Flag, California's state flag, was fittingly chosen as the time for this laudable ceremonial. The markers erected by the Native Sons on this day were temporary ones of wood suitably inscribed, but next year an appropriation by the Grand Parlor will make possible the erection of bronze tablets upon the historic spots indicated, with the addition of a bronze marker for the General Pervical Smith ranch, afterwards the palatial residence of the late Granville Swift, who was attached to the military barracks in Sonoma during the early forties.

Hundreds of visitors gathered near the historic Bear Flag site on Sonoma's Plaza in the afternoon to await the arrival of the distinguished party which came down the valley on the important mission of placing the markers, whose official members were accompanied by an enthusiastic delegation from many Sonoma county cities. The pilgrimage started at Santa Rosa in the vicinity of whose beautiful environs the Native Sons placed two markers, one to commemorate the burial place of two valiant American troopers, Cowie and Fowler, cowardly assassinated by Mexican bandits in 1846, and the Mark West cabin, built in 1845 by William Elliott, sheltering place of many stalwart pioneers.

At 2:30 p. m. the official procession was met at Kenwood by a delegation of Sonoma Native Sons, headed by A. W. Adler of the local reception committee. The first stop in Sonoma Valley was at the entrance of the "Fighting Joe" Hooker ranch near Agua Caliente, where a spike was driven for the marker commemorating the home of this intrepid pioneer-soldier.

FIXTURE FACTORY

BUSINESS BOOMS

The A. W. Adler mill is working a large force of mechanics under I. Monson, to fill orders for breakfast nooks, kitchen cabinets and other built-in features. The orders are being filled for Boston and Florida and Mr. Adler soon expects to have 20 people employed at his Sonoma factory, as his work is giving excellent satisfaction. The table tops are made of specially imported mahogany from the Philippines and both materials and workmanship are high class. Thirteen men are employed on this work at present.

Valley Of Moon Signs Attractive

Stop! Have you seen the attractive Valley of the Moon signs on the highway, directing tourists into the Jack London country? The good people of Glen Ellen, knowing the keen interest in their part of Sonoma Valley, because of the fact that it is the home place of the late author, have had the signs placed at important cross roads. Money was obtained for the purpose by public subscription and the signs shaped like a full moon and attractively lettered, now greet travelers. Good idea, Glen Ellen. We can all help to advertise this matchless valley.

Y. L. I. TO INSTALL AT THE NEW HALL

There will be a public installation of the newly elected officers of Sonoma Council, Young Ladies' Institute, early in July. The installation will be held at the new St. Francis hall, formerly the Presentation Convent, which has been finely remodeled and will be the permanent home of the Young Men's and Young Ladies' Institutes of Sonoma Valley.

Rev. Father Byrne and committees of the councils have worked hard and faithfully to convert the former convent building into the beautiful assembly hall, now the pride of the community.

New officers of the Young Ladies' Institute are as follows:

Past president, Miss Jane Daugherty; president, Mrs. Anita Murray; first vice president, Virginia Picetti; second vice president, Beatrice Heggie; recording secretary, Angela Marmori; financial secretary, Adeline Wirtz; treasurer, Amy Heggie; inside sentinel, Anita Murray; outside sentinel, Rose Pagani; trustees, Eileen Cowan, Margaret Cereghino, Lauretta Canevari; marshal, Mary Kiser; organist, Mrs. L. V. Empanan.

Delegates to the Y. L. I. convention to be held in Yosemite Valley in July are Miss Jane Daugherty and Beatrice Heggie; alternates, Mrs. J. Murray and Angela Marmori.

The Young Ladies' Institute gave its last regular whist party of the season at the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club house on Wednesday evening of this week. Despite the fact that so many interesting social and educational happenings occurred this week a fine crowd was present.

First prize for men, H. G. Wells' "Men Like Gods," went to Mr. Birnstingl, while Mrs. Dick Watt won first prize for ladies, a beautiful embroidered linen centerpiece. Consolation prizes went to Dr. Allen K. McGrath and Miss Burchard.

There was the usual abundance of good "eats" and all the committees on arrangements were as enthusiastic and active as ever though they have missed Mrs. Mattie Poppe on account of her illness; but to name them would practically be to call the roll of the Institute.

Misses Edna Cooper and Bertha Warthorst have gone on a trip to New York via the Panama Canal.

Mrs. Catherine Poppe, 96, Pioneer Mother, Passes After Long And Useful Life

The Angel of Death wrote finis in the book of life of Mrs. Catherine Poppe last Sunday evening at 5:30 o'clock, bringing to a close many interesting chapters in this long and useful career. Continuously for 74 years Mrs. Poppe resided in Sonoma Valley and she was 96 years and 3 months of age at the time of her passing. Her life was replete with a record of motherly love, devotion to family and business, thrift, success and many kindly deeds.

Coming here in 1851 from San Francisco, where her husband, the late Julius A. Poppe, had been a cigar merchant in the early days, Mrs. Poppe settled on the Popula (many amusements centers of its day, scene sprang) Rancho, now the Yenni of many social and fraternal affairs, ranch. Sonoma Valley was then a wild and rugged country, but here with all the loving care and devotion of the old time pioneer mother, three sons and three daughters were reared. The family resided for a time in the old "Slate House" near McGills, which had been brought from Sweden as ballast in a ship. Later they moved to Sonoma to give the children, Charles J., Robert, Emma, Kate and Julius, the benefit of schooling. The home of the Poppes when they first came to town was in the adobe on the north side of the Plaza, the old landmark still being in the family.

Relics to Be Sought For Old Mission

A movement to bring about a wonderful museum in the Sonoma Mission is being revived by the Sonoma Mission Committee and others interested in having a collection of relics maintained here. Anyone desiring to give to the collection in the historic building, which has a caretaker and is maintained by the State of California, may communicate with the Sonoma Index-Tribune or the Mission Committee, of which J. F. Prestwood is chairman. No place in California has more relics than Sonoma Valley and they should be preserved and cherished.

GRADUATION EXERCISES AT SONOMA SCHOOLS

The Sonoma Grammar School and High School held their commencement exercises Thursday and Friday nights of this week and students, parents and friends crowded the tastefully decorated auditoriums to greet the young graduates and wish them well.

Diplomas were conferred upon the following Grammar School students by Carl Dresel, veteran member of the Board:

Donald Bean, Herbert Randolph, Marjorie Tracey, Louis Minelli, Joseph Schmidt, Donald Schieck, John Hoeft, Geraldine Moranda, Donald Kresge, John Guilfoyle, David Hayward, Miro Mazza, Raymond Baracchi, Owen Niemann, Walter Cornelius, Malcolm Champlin, Elizabeth McDevitt, Jack Murray, Frances Bonsey, Violet Poncia, Louis Pellandini, Bert Manuel, Walter Sperring, Olga Yarosz, Steve Papina, Allen Thomson, Florence Weidrick, Delphine Barsi, Maxwell Johnson, Heleth Church, Lawrence Sebastiani, Rena Poncia, Alfreda Smith, John Silva, and Marjorie Rosser.

The program included numbers by the school orchestra, Jack Murray, Malcolm Champlin, Maxwell Johnson, Owen Niemann, Marjorie Tracey, Frances Bonsey, Herbert Randolph and Principal J. F. Prestwood, who presented his class with a complimentary talk.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME AT BUENA VISTA

Wednesday evening, shortly after 6 o'clock, the Sonoma and Boyes Springs fire departments were called to Buena Vista where the home of A. Lice, formerly the Jacobson ranch, was on fire. The flames had reached such headway that nothing could be done and the home was burned to the ground.

The young son of the owners, Albert Lice, had shortly left the house, and returning from Sonoma had found the place ablaze.

Many valuable things went up in the fire, as Mrs. Lice of San Francisco planned to move here permanently home from their honeymoon. They within a short time. There was $2000 insurance. The origin of the fire is not known.

GEORGE CAVAGLIA IS BADLY BURNED IN AN EXPLOSION

Nemesis Overtakes Ex-Boxer Who Had "Bootlegger" "Rep" But Cut Social Swath.

George Cavaglia, known in Sonoma Valley as "Bootlegger George," although officers regarded his sobriquet as a pleasantry and never got the goods on him, came to the end of the trail Monday when an explosion occurred at his place and he was badly burned.

George explained the explosion by saying that a gasoline can which he was carrying exploded when its contents came in contact with a cigarette, but a few hours later, as the victim of the accident was lying in the Burnsedale hospital, a shed on the premises at Verano where he lived was discovered on fire, and the 100 gallon still, which had evidently been giving trouble, was brought to light. A bottle of moonshine was also discovered in the handsome cream colored sport model Kissel car which was the pride of Cavaglia and the cynosure of car lovers' eyes throughout the Valley of the Moon.

Deputy Sheriff Ryan, who went to the fire when the Boyes Springs department was called to the scene, and was evidently suspicious of Cavaglia's accident a few hours previous, investigated and in the blazing shack saw the tell-tale still. With a long hook from the hook and ladder outfit of the fire department, he grappled the illicit outfit and succeeded in getting the evidence which included considerable mash. This, with liquor found in Cavaglia's car, will be used as evidence against him when the charge of manufacture and illegal possession of liquor brought against the injured man will be pressed. Cavaglia is badly burned and may be confined to the hospital several weeks. Skin grafting may be necessary, as his face and left side received the brunt of the burns.

"Bootlegger George" has cut a wide swath in Sonoma society and despite his nickname, was popular with dance lovers and also with local officers. It was generally reported that he had the "inside info" on all bootleggers and gave valuable tips to the officers when the spirit moved him. A handsome, dapper fellow, immaculate dresser and won-

EL VERANO NEWS

By ARCHIBALD McKIVER

A fire Monday at 2 o'clock on the premises of George Cavaglia caused some little excitement as the fire alarm echoed through the valley, arousing many from their slumbers, who made for the blaze. A 7 o'clock neighbors heard a first explosion near the Cavaglia home. In this explosion Cavaglia was badly burned. His story was that a can of gasoline exploded from a lighted cigarette, but other reasons for the burns are rumored. Deputy Sheriff Ryan was on the job later and dragged from the flames a 100 gallon still. It is said the still had just been started and owing to the inexperience of a helper, exploded. Cavaglia, known as the ace of bootleggers in Sonoma Valley, has been playin hide and seek for some time with the officers.

The famous Sonoma Valley had a big crowd of outside city visitors over the week end, many registering at El Verano hotels. Boyes Springs was crowded with joy seekers and bathers and the genial Fred Partridge, who knows 'em all, was as busy as the president on inaugural day, shaking hands and greeting friends. Fred is a great mixer and his success is assured. Swimming and diving by experts was enjoyed by the throngs at Boyes Springs. Tom Corcoran, of Agua Caliente Springs featured many amusements and dancing, including the wedding of his little daughter, who, with the parson, the groom, the bridesmaids and flower girls, proved quite an attraction. At Feters Springs genial George was also playing to a full house, with dancing and stunts in the swimming tank. Sunday was a gala day for the valley, which is becoming one of the popular and famous outing places in California.

Many Eastern visitors were among those visiting the valley, lured here by the sunshine, flowers and mineral springs. Louis Parente, popular host of this place, reports many reservations at the Inn.

Maurice O'Dowd and family are here from San Francisco to spend several days at their summer home in South El Verano. Mr. O'Dowd is a police detective of San Francisco.

Dan McCarthy was a business visitor to his old home town, Emeryville, last week.

The P. H. McCarthy family of San Francisco are enjoying a visit at their summer home in Sonoma Vista.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sutter, who recently removed to Berkeley, are now residing on the Sonoma-Petaluma road, Mr. Sutter having taken charge of a creamery in Petaluma.

George Higgins and family of San Francisco spent Sunday at the Fleming home in Sonoma Vista. Higgins is connected with the Mission Athletic Club and expects to put on a banner boxing bout at San Francisco on Labor Day. The gladiators for the big fight have not been selected, but the promoters of the club will probably put on a champ of one of the classes against a worthy opponent. George Tunney, who recently defeated Tom Gibbons, has been approached to be a principal in the big boxing bill.

Spencer Merz, after a week's visit in the South, returned home Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Heinzman and G. West of Los Angeles are guests at the West home here, where they will spend two weeks. The southern visitors like Sonoma Valley and are visiting the valley's many scenic spots.

Dave Forni and C. Chance took in the rodeo at Petaluma last Saturday. Chance, a dare devil cowboy, performed at the show and was cheered by the audience for his daring stunts.

Andrew Perrett of Oakland was in town Sunday visiting his wife. The Perretts plan to move to Oakland in the near future.

The funeral of Billy Brennan, former boxer and well known in sporting circles, was held in San Francisco on Friday of last week. A number of Sonoma Valley friends attended the funeral which was held from the Italian church with a high requiem mass. Many beautiful floral pieces decorated the casket of deceased. The remains were laid to rest in Holy Cross cemetery, San Francisco. Brennan died from injuries received in an automobile accident last week.

Pete Finnegan, of Verano, attended the funeral of Billy Brennan at San Francisco last Friday.

Miss M. Vogeli, niece of Mrs. Paul Vannucchi, has arrived in California from Germany. Miss Vogeli who already admires the United States, is a guest of Mrs. Vannucchi at the summer resort at Verano.

John Batto & Sons, of Vineburg, unloaded a car of mixed feed at their El Verano warehouse last Saturday.

Mrs. R. Morrell left for Nevada last Monday to join her husband, who is a railroad fireman.

Bill Preston was transacting business in Santa Rosa last week. Preston, who resides in Concord, stopped over in El Verano to visit relatives. Conductor Hildebrand and wife are spending several days at Yosemite. Conductor Murphy of Oakland is relieving Hildebrand.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Glave of Burlingame are spending several days as guests of Mrs. J. Dutil.

William Semel, of San Francisco, a former resident here, was renewing acquaintances here last week.

"Turn her in? Why should I? That old Ford is as good as she ever was. Since I switched to that new Zerolene 'F' for Fords she runs like a clock and seems to have a bit more power too."

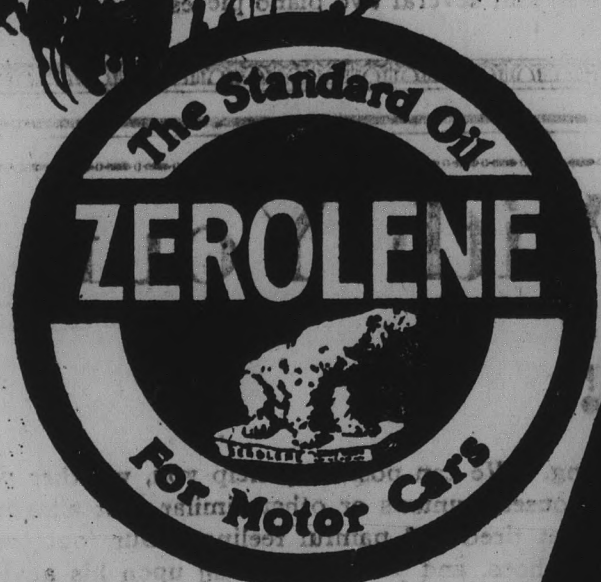

Zerolene "F" for Fords gets to all the bearings requiring lubrication—especially the wrist-pin bearings and the upper half of the cylinder walls that are frequently oil-starved when an unsuitable lubricant is used.

It deposits a minimum of carbon, and because it lubricates better, enables the engine to develop a considerable margin of power over and above what you're accustomed to expect from your Ford.

And it costs not more, but less than most of the special Ford oils now on the market.

A Ford is an A-1 transportation investment. Protect your investment by proper lubrication.

THE AMERICAN LEGION APPEAL

The American Legion boys of Sonoma County and the entire nation are intent just now on raising money in the $5,000,000 drive, the funds derived to be put out at interest that the income may carry on great and good work among ex-soldiers, sailors and war workers. That Sonoma County will raise its quota goes without saying and Sonoma Valley, too, will do its bit, the $500 set down as our part of the fund being a modest request.

It is true the public is being continually called upon for many kinds of assistance from many sources, but here is a worthy cause in which every family should interest itself. If our boys meant anything to us in wartime they should mean much more now, for those who made the supreme sacrifice and those who were called to the colors and were units in those great divisions which were concentrated for battle and made history alike are entitled to the everlasting gratitude of every American. It is this gratitude which will be translated into practical aid, not officially by the government, for that has all been attended to and the United States is doing wonderful work for its vets. Funds now being collected from appreciative givers will be dispensed by the national organization of the American Legion without red tape and with an intimate knowledge of the needs of their buddies. The government has given its full approval to the plan and the high motive which actuates it.

The aid for orphan children of the World War veterans would in itself commend the drive now on. Here in Sonoma Valley we have had the plan explained whereby children will be cared for in billets such as may be built at Buena Vista if the State of California will arrange to lease the Legion the farm once tenanted by delinquent women. The institution, or home, for such it would truly be, will adhere to the cottage plan with a Legion "mother" at the head of each cottage and its family of children. The orphans would be found permanent homes eventually and take their part as good, useful, young citizens of the United States.

We believe Sonoma Valley is deeply interested in this humanitarian effort and will do its utmost, particularly as this locality has been recommended by those high in official Legion circles as a most desirable place to carry on some of the charitable work on the big program.

If you have not already opened your heart and purse to this after-war charity, do so at once and have a part in its progress and success.

SONOMA PUBLISHERS RETURN FROM TAHOE

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Murphy arrived home on the S. P. evening train at El Verano last Saturday after a week's visit at Lake Tahoe where the annual convention of the California Press Association was held at Tahoe Tavern. Governor Friend W. Richardson, president of the association, accompanied the editors of many sections of California on this delightful outing.

The weather was ideal, although the mountain ranges on both the California and Nevada shores were decorated with snow and within four miles of the hotel tobogganing and skiing were favorite sports. The lake seemed more beautiful than ever with its intense blue surface and the contrast of vivid green water in the vicinity of Emerald Bay. The majestic pines towered in all their magnificence from the California shores, where the Tavern, our headquarters, is situated.

After a day's rest, Governor Richardson and his "family" were ready for the splendid entertainment which had been provided and the festivities which the association itself had planned in honor of California's chief executive.

The Sonoma publishers, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, chose different diversions for the Monday program. Mr. Murphy going fishing to Watson Lake with a party of sportsmen, and the Missus choosing a motor ride to Fallen Leaf Lake, one of the most delightful and surprising beauties in the Sierras. After skirting the granite cliff which rises above Emerald Bay you make a sharp turn at Tallac into the heart of the woods and after winding around the mountains, suddenly come upon Fallen Leaf Lake, its rustic beauty mirroring tall granite cliffs which rise above it. A resort and cottages, many boats and fishing equipment indicated the pleasures which many derive from this natural paradise where little style prevails, but real health and recreation abound.

Tuesday and Wednesday steamer trips on Lake Tahoe were provided and all the resorts visited by Governor Richardson and his party. At Emerald Bay a girl violinist in gypsy-like costume stood on the pier and played most delightfully for the press party. Impromptu singing by the editors and their ladies added to the occasion. Lunch was served aboard the boat. Wednesday's entertainment at Brockway included luncheon at the hotel at this delightful place, which is situated on the California-Nevada line and is famous because of the recent success of the drama "Lightnin'" written there. A hot sulphur spring right on the shore of the lake, at Brockway supplies the hotel with all hot water for bathing.

Wednesday night, at the Tavern, a banquet was given President Richardson, of the association, by the members. The tables were beautiful with mountain wild flowers, the orchestra played, there was speech making, toasts and original songs in true press club style. The climax of the evening was the presentation to Governor Richardson of a huge cake on which a replica of the state capitol at Sacramento had been fashioned, of sugar by the confectioner of the hotel's culinary department. The Governor cut the cake and found it such a big job that he took of his coat and "went to it." The presentation ceremony was beautifully arranged, the waiters bearing the huge cake being preceded by beautiful little Miss Conrad, the daughter of a Southern California editor and a pupil of Kosloff, who danced and courted before the Governor. Following her graceful part on the program the little dancer was presented with a large Indian basket filled with flowers and the press members presented the Governor's wife, Mrs. Richardson, with a handsome water color picture of Lake Tahoe. Among speakers of the evening was Mayor Dunbar of Santa Rosa, who boosted our own Sonoma county. Governor Richardson spoke feelingly of the splendid affair in his honor and reviewed his more than 20 years of service in the organization of California newspaper men. He declared the association meant more to him than anything else in his life, certainly more than his political future, and he appreciated the honor of re-election as president of the organization and the confidence reposed in him by his fellow editors. Politics were not discussed at the banquet, nor could the Governor be lured into committing himself as to the future campaign. He mentioned that the California Press Association was not a political organization and would not become one.

Thursday a trip to the state fish hatcheries and other points of interest was enjoyed, and on Friday an invitation from the Carson City and Reno, Nevada, Chambers of Commerce to visit the Sage Brush State. The California Press delegation went to Glenbrook by boat and were there met by a caravan of automobiles which took the editors over the Carson Pass to Carson City. The drive, hazardous and magnificent, will never be forgotten. The old mining region, its deserted camps, like Washoe, the romantic Sandy Bowers home, the Indian school and state's prison were all of interest. Carson City people were royal hosts. Their claim to the finest water in America was verified by the Sonoma editors, who believe Sonoma and Carson really have the best in all the world.

At Reno, whose thriving business district and beautiful residences along Riverside Drive and its picturesque river won the admiration of all, a splendid reception was accorded at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters. The new public park and exposition grounds being built by Reno to celebrate the opening of the Wendenover cut-off next year will be a beauty spot. Three buffalo and a buffalo calf three days old were objects of interest at this park.

Hospitable car owners took the California editors back to Tahoe Tavern over the famous Dog Valley grade, a distance of 60 miles. Nothing seemed too much for these big-hearted Western folks to do for the Californians.

Back at the Tavern, Dr. Sprague, who is there for the season, had a big trout cooked for the party.

Among those well known in Sonoma Valley who attended besides Mr. and Mrs. Murphy were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutgens of Sacramento; Charles O. Dunbar, Santa Rosa; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mobley, Santa Rosa; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Merk, Burlingame; Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Olmstead and daughter and Homer Wood, Petaluma.

A party of Sonoma motored to Santa Rosa Monday night to attend the Encampment, branch of the L. O. O. F., festivities. Those in the party were Mrs. P. Angove, George Angove, Miss McConochie, Mrs. Ada Pauli, Charles Taylor, Miss Nellie Peterson and Miss Alice Young.

TOM MILLERICK CROSSES THE GREAT DIVIDE

Tom Millerick, one of the famous rodeo stars, member of the Millerick Brothers' outfit, of Schellville, and a popular old Sonoma boy, died at Applegate, Placer county, Tuesday evening after a lingering illness. Millerick was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. Millerick and leaves a wife and little son to mourn him, besides his brothers, Jack and Dr. George Millerick, and his sister, Mrs. Jensen, of Berkeley. His widow was formerly Miss May Watt, daughter of a pioneer Sonoma Valley family.

The remains were shipped from Placer county to Petaluma, arriving in that city Thursday night, where they reposed at Blackburn's funeral parlors. On Friday morning, a solemn high requiem mass was celebrated at St. Vincent's church, Petaluma, which was crowded with a sorrowing throng of relatives and friends. Interment was at Calvary cemetery, beside the parents and late brother of deceased.

Tom Millerick was a native Californian and had all the spirit of the real West. When a very young boy he showed great interest in horses and later he and his brother acquired many famous broncos and assembled about them a lot of clever exhibition riders. The Millerick Wild West performers came to be in great demand at all big rodeos and cleverly managed by Tom Millerick were most successful.

Deceased was a genial, kindly man, generous to a fault and every loyal to friends, of whom he had a legion. He was devoted to his church and family and was related to Rev. Father Byrne of St. Francis parish, Sonoma. Of recent year he had resided in Berkeley.

BOYES SPRINGS WRESTS LAURELS FROM DEL MONTE

Boyes Springs has been awarded the Pacific Association women's senior 50 yard swimming championship for July 12th, the race to be held in the beautiful swimming pool which has been reconstructed since the fire.

E. D. Grace, executive secretary of the Pacific Association, announced the award Tuesday. The 50 yard championship is one of the classic events of the year. It has been held for the last four years as the feature event of the annual Del Monte girls' swimming meet. This year Del Monte has been forced to cancel the event and Boyes Springs has been picked to hold the title feature.

Eleanor Garatti, national A. A. U. 50 yard champion, will swim in the Pacific Association race, and will, of course, be the favorite to win.

The meet at Boyes will be a two-day affair, on Saturday an open 100 yard race for women will be held.

The big mineral swimming pool of Messrs. Partridge and Lichtenberg is attracting the attention of swimming enthusiasts everywhere and many important events are scheduled, in addition to the event formerly held at Del Monte.

MRS. JEP VALENTE VISITING IN EAST

Mrs. Jep Valente has gone East to visit her sister and family and expects to be gone during the summer. Her mother, Mrs. Anderson, will keep house for Mr. Valente during her absence.

Mrs. Jep's many friends wish her a pleasant journey and a safe return.

DEATH OF BOYES SPRINGS MAN

Edward Berry, 45, employee of Boyes Springs, who was being taken in an ambulance to a hospital for blood transfusion, died enroute on Tuesday. He had long been a sufferer from a chronic complaint and succumbed after a few days' illness. Dr. Thomson was in attendance.

SCHELLVILLE NEWS

John Wadsworth is visiting his friend, George Cassidy, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lee, who were guests at the E. S. Peterson home, have returned to their home in Oakland. Mrs. Marymee, mother of Mrs. Peterson, has also returned to her Oakland home.

The Eric Carlson home was the scene of a happy gathering on last Wednesday evening when 21 friends were entertained at cards. Mrs. Carlson happened to remember that Miss Marie Anderson's birthday anniversary happen to occur on the same date so surprised her by baking a pretty birthday cake, much to the delight of all. Guests included the following families: The Dahlquist and Nels Pearson of El Verano, the A. Carlsons of Buena Vista, the Ivan Andersons of Schellville, and the Eric Carlsons of Sonoma. Delicious refreshments were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Hyde and son, Herschel, are enjoying their vacation at Bass Lake and report a wonderful time.

Jack Wilson, of Locust Grove, enjoyed a visit this week with pay city relatives and old friends.

Fred Fouts has not been in the best of health of late. His friends are hoping for a quick recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hanley had a visit Sunday from their son, Frank and his friend, Miss Evelyn Delahanty of San Francisco.

The Jolly Twelve were hospitably entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alma Koeboom.

Mrs. Grover Rubke and daughters spent Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Purviance in the metropolis.

Messrs. Richard Guilfoyle and Ledford, accompanied by two charming Sonoma girls, attended Foley's circus at San Rafael last week.

After a week's vacation, Raymond Dow again took up his duty as rural mail carrier of Vallejo. Last Saturday the Dows spent the day at Dillon Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Neuman, accompanied by Dr. Sam Weiss of San Francisco visited at the Fred Schell home Sunday.

Mrs. W. L. McAllister has been entertaining her brother, Mr. Whitehead and wife, of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Balios are enjoying a visit from their two nieces, who reside in Petaluma.

Mrs. Charles Potter and friends spent last Saturday at Mill Valley.

After a several days' visit with San Francisco friends, Mrs. Perle Erasmus is home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore LaHaye and friends of San Francisco were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoegemann.

Mrs. Fred Schell expects to leave shortly for Oregon on an extended trip. She will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Harry Fuller.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pauli and children left Sunday for a visit with Della Pauli Rowell and family at St. Francis Wood, San Francisco.

Mrs. E. S. Peterson and little son have returned from San Francisco, where Orlin underwent an operation on his throat. Owing to his recent illness it was necessary that a specialist be consulted.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Helberg, Sr., motored to Stockton where they spent Monday and Tuesday with their daughter, Mrs. L. Thomas and family. Fred Schell, Jr., is spending his vacation in San Francisco and the bay cities.

Mrs. Edgar Clements entertained a number of friends on Tuesday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. R. Kitts, who with her little granddaughter, Lenore, leave in a few days for a visit to Los Angeles and other southern cities. After Lenore's vacation is over, Mrs. Kitts will bring her home and will then leave for her old home in the East. Mrs. Kitts has formed many warm friendships while in the valley and friends will regret to hear of her departure. The refreshments and table decorations were lovely and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all. Guests were Mesdames R. Kitts, A. J. Clements, E. T. Casson, G. H. Hotz, R. Hotz, E. Steiger, A. F. Hopke, J. Keiser, John Gottenberg, and E. Clements, Miss Evelyn Steiger

BUNGALOW WAS "HOME BEAUTIFUL"

The Sonoma Valley Woman's Club sponsored the "home beautiful" movement here by furnishing up one of the attractive bungalows in the Hunt tract and holding therein an informal reception three days of this week, have made a proud showing. The bungalow will be open to the public all day today and tomorrow. Through co-operation of Sonoma merchants the ladies have been able to set forth the beautiful home idea in a manner which has won them and the local dealers great praise. Incidentally the artistic bungalows erected by the Petaluma Development Company on their property here were much complimented by visitors.

The living room of the bungalow, with its taupe Chesterfield set, was by courtesy of F. Dühring, with pictures and accessories from W. E. Kiefer. Mr. Kiefer also provided the handsome mantel clock and china for the dining room. The dining room walnut dining set and buffet were from F. Clewe's, as were the rich rugs and the beautiful walnut bedroom set, chiffonier and cedar chest in one of the bedrooms. Beautiful curtains and attractive hangings were furnished by G. H. Hotz.

A cream color enamel set in the rose room with its dressing table and chiffonier, its silk covered bed and attractive bedside lamp added to the color contrast. A. J. Martinson supplied electric lamps, floor lamps, the washing machine, electric range, the aluminum ware, radio, and other modern conveniences of the home beautiful. The kitchen with its buff hangings and enameled breakfast nook set was most attractive.

Ladies of the club, including Mrs. Burlingame, Mrs. Golton and Mrs. R. Hotz added dainty hand embroideries and polychrome art to the furnishing scheme, making the ensemble most attractive.

The club's committee which arranged the home beautiful exhibition was composed of Mesdames Burlingame, Golton, Tate, Koeboom and Hunter.

FORMER SONOMA BOY VISITS

ANOTHER PROUD DAY IN HISTORY OF SONOMA

The General Vallejo place was next visited, a marker being placed at the entrance on Spain street in memory of General Mariano Guadalupe Vallejo, the distinguished commandante of California's northern frontier, 1835-1846.

In the vicinity of the Plaza and the Mission, including the Broadway entrance to the historic square, several markers were erected, the ceremony concluding at the Bear Flag site, where a stirring patriotic address was given by Lewis H. Byington, past grand president of the Native Sons, loyal and talented California orator. George Barron, of San Francisco, curator of the De Young memorial museum, was master of ceremonies and introduced the speaker. Mr. Barron recalled that it was the first time in the history of California that so many markers had been placed in one vicinity in one afternoon. Mr. Byington, accorded a flattering ovation by old friends and admirers, reviewed the colorful history of California up through the mythical vale of time to the days of the famous explorers who sailed the seas in this vicinity and finally discovered this matchless land. He told of pageantry to be wrought into the coming Diamond Jubilee in San Francisco when the 75th anniversary of California into the Union will be commemorated. He paid glowing tribute to the pioneers who blazed the trail for the great commonwealth which has come into being since the days of '49. Kit Carson, General Fremont and other great men who battled the snows of almost impenetrable passes in the days of Indians were paid just tribute, as were the gentle fathers of Spain who came into the land of savage tribes to set up the cross and teach the ways of civilization. Mr. Byington traced the Missions' rise from San Diego to Sonoma and recalled the kindly regime of Vallejo during the Mexican rule, the Bear Flag's rugged rise and the coming of the American flag to Monterey and Sonoma. The speaker launched into the most beautiful of tributes to the Stars and Stripes and those who lived under its folds in the stirring days on the Western frontier.

"God Almighty, so it seems, sifted the choicest and most virile seed in the universe to scatter here in our Golden State," and from this land, down to the present generation, has come a fine race of men to live up to the highest and finest traditions of their race. He plead for loyalty, allegiance and love of Old Glory and all it typifies, and in conclusion quoted a famous United States senator's tribute to the flag.

Following the ceremonies at the Plaza the grand officers of the N. S. G. W. and guests, including Past Grand President Byington, Judge Charles Thompson of Santa Clara and James A. Wilson of San Francisco, second and third grand vice presidents; John T. Regan, grand secretary; C. L. Dodge, R. L. Hamb, J. T. Newell and Dr. F. I. Gonzales, grand trustees; J. H. Russell, grand inside sentinel; Professor Robert Cloud, city superintendent of San Francisco schools and his historiographer; Sheriff Treager of Los Angeles Co.; Charles Dewitt, bibliographer; James Houlihan, former United States marshal; Captain Virgil Butts of Santa Rosa; Senator Slater of Santa Rosa; Thomas P. Boyd of San Rafael; J. P. McDonnell of Sebastopol; Assemblyman Scudder; Tom Hutchinson and J. H. Weise, former supervisors; Frank Doyle, Dr. Frank Phillips, Judge M. Vaughan, Messrs. Cereghino and Hickey of Petaluma, and others were guests at an al fresco banquet given by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Serres at their historical ranch, the former Hooker place, which was one of the famous places of Sonoma Valley marked earlier in the day.

The grounds had been decorated with large American flags. Tables were set under the trees beneath a canopy of red and yellow streamers, the Spanish colors of old California being also used with good effect on the veranda of the stately old mansion where an orchestra played throughout the late afternoon. Senor

Don Jorge Barron, toastmaster, and Senoras Serres and Adler, all in colorful Spanish costumes (designed for the Diamond Jubilee) dispensed the hospitality of the occasion. An elegant repast was served, interspersed with speeches and toasts, speakers including Messrs. Byington, Regan, Boyd, Judge Thompson, Senator Slater and others. Mrs. Lulu Vallejo Emparan, specially invited guest, heard glowing tributes paid her father, the late General Vallejo, and graciously responded with appropriate remarks and a number of Spanish songs. The spirit of the old California seemed abroad on this occasion and too much praise cannot be accorded Mr. and Mrs. Serres for opening wide the doors of hospitality and giving our visitors a glimpse of Sonoma as it was in the days of the famous haciendas, whose colorful beauty and charm will ever linger, though too seldom revived.

Incidentally Mr. and Mrs. Serres gave the historiographers of the party the opportunity to inspect some old records of California history which were a part of the collection of the late Franklin Watriss. These rare documents include a sheep skin scroll, the confirmation of the military laws governing California, issued by Pio Pico, last Mexican governor in California, 1845; confirmed in another document by Francisco Guerrero, sub-prefect of Yerba Buena; a note from the British consul referring to the Hudsons Bay Company, 1841; a table indicating duties to be charged on cargoes of merchandise admitted from foreign countries to the ports of San Diego, Santa Barbara, Monterey and San Francisco, signed by Don Manuel Michelorena. In addition, relics of "Fighting Joe" Hooker, the Vigilantes and early San Francisco and Sonoma were exhibited; also many rare volumes of books including a colonial history of San Francisco, said to be priceless.

It was with reluctance that guests departed from Sonoma Valley at the end of this perfect day, all uniting in praise of the Native Sons and of the hospitality of Mr. Serres, member of Sonoma Parlor, No. 111.

OLD FASHIONED DANCES REVIVED

Under the personal direction of H. Schieck, of Glen Ellen, a series of old fashioned dances will be held at the Caliente Poppy Bowl every Thursday night, starting June 25th. Professor Schieck will be assisted by Mrs. Sadie Perkins, pianist. The quadrille, lancers, schottische and other old time dances will be featured.

THE AMISTAD CLUB REPORTS PROGRESS

The Amistad Club, composed of seven ladies prominent in St. Francis parish, report that they are meeting with great success in disposing of tickets on the linen chest. It is the aim of the club in this manner to raise a sum of money which will be applied on the balance yet remaining unpaid on the new St. Francis church. The Amistad Club is deserving of praise for their efforts and these is no doubt that all the tickets will be disposed of when the St. Francis church fair is held here in October, at which time the linen chest will be awarded.

HERMAN LODGE, F. & A. M. OUTING AT SCHUHMAN'S

Herman Lodge No. 127, F. & A. M. of San Francisco, held its annual outing at the Schuhmann Resort, Buena Vista, recently. The beautiful skies of Sonoma Valley brought a large number of members and friends to this wonderful spot and besides the railroad arrivals there were about 50 autos required to accommodate the merry makers. A delightful dinner, music, dance and games pleased the guests until the early evening.

Paul Posch, Willy Baat, Otto Koch and Worshipful Master Dr. Albert Schraft deserve the highest credit for the pleasing and most successful arrangement of the affair.

Herman Lodge No. 127 is one of the oldest lodges of Masonry in California, its charter dating back to the early fifties.

What Is Thrift?

Thrift is the intelligent control of money. It means planned spending, thoughtful giving, careful investment, foresight and systematic saving.

Thrift is simple; it is common sense; it is a habit of mind to be developed. Thrift is the foundation for success and happiness.

A Mercantile Self-Regulating Savings Account will help you cultivate the thrift habit.

and well known Supervisor Lowell, of Sonoma. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nonella, of El Verano.

Eli Boche, U. C. student who is resting his weary brain at the home of El Verano relatives, after a hard term at Berkeley, is raising an eyebrow on his upper lip which has caught the eyes of our summer girls. The debonair student is the village Beau Brummel during his stay here and will certainly be vamped if he doesn't remove the new addition, as the girls all seem to have forsaken the clean shaven dandy for the visiting whiskered gentleman. These jazz-mania times make big changes and it is said that other El Veranoites will also start a growth in order to keep in the running with our pretty summer girls.

Miss B. LaHaye of San Francisco was spending Sunday with friends in El Verano.

Julius Thomson of Chicago is the guest of his brothers here and will remain in California for some time.

CATHERINE POPPE, PIONEER MOTHER, DIES

had their home and business, after which Mrs. Poppe retired. Her sons and daughters had grown up and married, the second son, the late Robert A. Poppe having graduated from the University of California and become a prominent attorney of Sonoma county; the other sons, Charles J. and Julius E. engaging in business for themselves in this vicinity, and the daughters, Mrs. Small and Mrs. Buchan, though married, continuing to reside in Sonoma near their mother. With her children and grand children about her in her declining years, the beloved pioneer enjoyed the quietude of old age, free from most of the ills with which the aged are afflicted and preserving up to last year all her faculties.

The death of her son and adviser, Attorney R. A. Poppe three years ago and the loss of her grandson, the late Ralph Buchan, were great shocks to her, but with the loving care of her daughter, Mrs. Kate Buchan, with whom she made her home, she was enabled to reconcile herself to the sad loss and up to a few months ago enjoyed remarkable health. Death came after short suffering and her devoted sons and daughters were with her as Death's shadow descended.

Mrs. Poppe was born in Blies Castle, Bavaria, Germany, in 1829, and came to California when a young girl. She often recalled many interesting recollections of pioneer days and her birthday parties each year since her retirement have been days of reminiscence and great pleasure to her large circle of friends who always honored her anniversaries and bestowed on her many flowers.

The flowers which heaped her beautiful casket at the funeral Thursday were but further expressions of love and regard from the many relatives and friends who cherished this pioneer mother in life and will long revere her memory.

Interment was at Mountain cemetery, Sonoma.

etery. Pallbearers were young men, members of the family. Rev. Cookman, Sonoma, and Rev. Youngman, Glen Ellen, officiated.

ternoon, where he had been sent from the Preston Industrial School at Ione following his conviction for highway robbery at Santa Monica. It is believed the fugitive headed toward Santa Rosa, and a look-out is being kept by deputies throughout Sonoma county.

Miss M. Faur of San Francisco is being entertained at the Taulis home.

Frank Bayouli and wife were visitors here Sunday. They reside in San Francisco.

E. H. Cliff and B. Weatherhead left for Yosemite Valley last Saturday to spend several days. They are making the trip in the latter's new Star car.

Mrs. W. Bomhoff and little daughter have returned to San Francisco after spending several week at their El Verano country home.

Mrs. Little of San Francisco is spending two weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Beach in Sonoma Vista.

The pupils of the El Verano Grammar School, accompanied by their teachers, assembled at the old Maxwell grove last Friday, where they enjoyed a picnic on the banks of Sonoma Creek. Games were played, racing and swimming enjoyed, and all had a most pleasant day. A basket lunch was served during the day.

An S. P. work crew has been side-tracked at the yards here. The men are building and repairing fences on the company's right of way.

John Bennett, San Francisco mail employee, accompanied by his wife, are vacationing at their Sonoma Vista bungalow.

The Bencke family of San Francisco is spending the summer months at Sonoma Vista.

Mesdames Redihan and Shea, with their families, are here from San Francisco spending their vacation at the Muldowney cottage on Nob Hill.

Miss Anne Dowdall of Berkeley is spending several weeks at the home of her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Emmett Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Rossi and Mrs. Wymore, all of San Francisco, motored to Sonoma Sunday to attend the landmarks ceremony. Hayden and Rossi are supervisors of San Francisco and while here met many warm friends. They did some good boosting for the Diamond Jubilee while in Sonoma Valley.

Mrs. Hayden, a talented elocutionist who won much praise on the Bret Harte program during the Sacramento Days of '49 celebration, has consented to repeat her Bret Harte number some time here before the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club.

LOUIS MARTIN AT OLD STAND

Louis Martin, who for many years successfully conducted the corner and recreation hall opposite the Vineburg N. W. P. depot, is back at the old stand and has re-opened the ice cream parlor. His many friends and the traveling public in general will be glad to know that the genial Mr. Martin is back and will conduct in connection with his ice cream stand an athletic club. He will promote a baseball team put in considerable equipment at the hall which will be converted into a gymnasium and generally make things pleasant for both old and young.

FRUIT THRIVES HERE

A. C. Clark, genial Glen Ellen resident, owner of one of the finest mountain homes in the Valley of the Moon, was a welcome visitor at the Index-Tribune office Tuesday. Mr. Clarke brought in a collection of flowers, including the blossom of a strawberry guava shrub. The plant is native to Uruguay and the South American country, but thrives in Sonoma soil and produces delicious fruit.

ILLNESS AT LAMBERT HOME

L. F. Lambert, local business man, has been confined to his home with an attack of acute appendicitis. His wife has been ill for the past eight weeks and under the care of a doctor. Her mother has been here from Seattle, caring for the patients.

Friends of the family throughout Sonoma Valley have made many anxious inquiries.

DEATH OF A MOTHER

Mrs. J. M. Renslinger, widow of the late Dr. Renslinger and beloved mother of M. J. Renslinger, Sonoma business man, died at her home in Evanston, Illinois, on June 9th, aged 70 years.

Deceased had been in California recently and visited her son here. She was so charmed with the valley that she planned to sell out in the East and return. Death followed the excessive heat wave in Illinois.

REAL ESTATE DEALS

Real estate business has been quite active, George W. Samuel and W. W. Carter having made the following sales of Sonoma Highlands property at Boyes Springs: Five lots to Frank Marino, one lot to John and Frank Pugh, one lot to Mrs. Waugh, one lot to Mrs. Maria Galobric, and one lot to J. M. Offermann. All of the purchasers are from San Francisco.

A. M. JOHNSON BUYS RANCH

A. M. Johnson, wife and daughter of San Francisco have bought the Moscovitz ranch of 24 acres and are making many improvements there. Mr. Johnson will establish a model 40 cow dairy and is employing a number of local business people to equip the place. A pressure water system is one of the improvements in progress. Mr. Johnson has already made friends here. He was formerly a San Francisco realtor.

Miss Rena Poncia severely injured her left leg while operating a mowing machine at the Poncia ranch southeast of town. One of the blades cut into the bone. She was taken to a Petaluma hospital.
